

U.N. Adopts Western Declaration For Peace

Rejects Russ Plan Blasting U. S., Britain

New York, Dec. 1—(AP)—The United Nations adopted a 12-point western power declaration for peace today and then rejected a Soviet peace plan calling the United States and Britain war plotters.

The 59-nation assembly voted 53 to five for the joint British-United States resolution outlining 12 essentials for peace.

The voting came after Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Y. Vishinsky shouted a denial of Yugoslav charges that the Kremlin is interfering with Yugoslavia. One of the listed essentials for peace calls for keeping hands off other countries' affairs.

The resolution was largely a reaffirmation of principles already in the U. N. charter, but it was regarded as a direct slap at the communists in the light of the charges brought against Russia in the assembly debate.

Apply To Tito-Russ Relations

Several points apply directly to acts such as the communist threats against Premier Marshal Tito and Russia's alleged direct intervention in the Chinese civil war.

The top diplomats then went back to Lake Success and set down in a political committee meeting to debate nationalist China's last-ditch—and apparently hopeless—demand that the U. N. denounce Russia directly for helping Chinese communists overrun China.

Little support was forecast for the nationalist effort to prevent recognition of the communist regime at Peking.

Vishinsky was booked to sail for home tomorrow aboard the British liner Mauretania. But members of the Russian delegation said tonight Vishinsky cancelled his passage late in the day and will remain until the session is finished about Dec. 10.

The Soviet foreign minister laid his "peace" plan before the assembly Sept. 23.

Pet Project Defeated

His pet project the keynote of Russian policy in this assembly, was defeated in a series of smashing votes. It was a move to:

1. Brand the United States and Britain as leaders in preparation for a new war.
2. Outlaw atomic weapons.
3. Have Britain, the United States, China and France sign a new peace pact with the Soviet Union.

The western power peace outline calls on all nations to refrain from threats or force against other nations, or from stirring up civil strife or otherwise interfering with the integrity of any country.

Steelmen Voices Hopes Of Peace In Coal Dispute

Key West, Fla., Dec. 1—(AP)—President Truman's top labor consultant voiced hope tonight of a possible settlement of the coal labor controversy as the aftermath of John L. Lewis' calling off of the nation-wide strike.

An optimistic John R. Steelman expressed confidence there would be no resumption of the strike and that harmony in the coal industry may usher in a "long period of industrial peace."

Steelman said Lewis' announcement of the resumption Monday of a three-day work week was "no surprise" to Mr. Truman.

The assistant to the president said he saw grounds for belief Lewis and the coal operators eventually will reach an agreement.

"My understanding is that they are closer together than they were a few days ago," he added. He said he was "optimistic. I am always optimistic."

He wouldn't go beyond saying that at least some of the coal operators wanted to settle with Lewis.

Soldier Extradited To Illinois To Face Rape Charge

Annapolis, Md., Dec. 1—(AP)—A Chemical Corps soldier was extradited to Illinois today to face charges of raping a teen-ager on a blind date. Governor Lane ordered Private Richard Meenan, 28, returned to Midlothian, Ill., for trial.

Meenan, who is stationed at the army chemical center, Edgewood, Md., is accused of raping a 16-year-old Chicago girl he met while on furlough Sept. 3 in Midlothian.

Denying the charge, he said the girl's story was trumped up out of feminine spite.

Meenan told Assistant Attorney General Joseph D. Buscher at an extradition hearing he had one date with her.

Illinois News Briefs

Galesburg, Ill., Dec. 1—(AP)—While Yates City firemen attended a firemen's meeting in Knoxville last night, fire destroyed part of a building owned by Hilfred Kjellenberg, a fireman.

The fire department from nearby Elmwood, whose members spurned the Knoxville meeting, went to Yates City and put out the fire.

Yates City and Knoxville are 18 miles apart.

Springfield, Ill., Dec. 1—(AP)—Robert L. Knetzer, bankrupt Edwardsville car dealer who once had a multi-million dollar business, came into federal court today to answer a summons in a contempt citation.

The citation was issued by Judge Charles G. Briggie last month after Knetzer failed to turn over $250,000 for his creditors in compliance with a court order.

Decatur, Ill., Dec. 1—(AP)—Archie R. Baumgartner, 18, of Royalton, was killed last night in a collision of an automobile and a truck parked on Route 51 near Pana.

The youth and five other students at the Lincoln Bible Institute were returning to Lincoln from Eldorado where they had broadcast over a radio station. Baumgartner's companions were unhurt.

Springfield, Ill., Dec. 1—(AP)—Governor Stevenson said today he sees no reason for him to take an active part of the 1950 democratic primary election.

"My disposition would be to stay out of it," he told reporters who asked if he plans to make any primary speeches or take sides in the event of democratic primary contests.

Springfield, Ill., Dec. 1—(AP)—Governor Stevenson said today he is "completely satisfied" that 1949-50 state coal contracts were awarded to the lowest responsible bidders "quality considered."

The governor again denied that mines employing Progressive Mine Workers did not get a fair share of the contracts, as contended by union President John Marchiondo.

Chicago, Dec. 1—(AP)—A two-car collision on Waukegan road in Northfield township injured five men today.

Police said a southbound auto in which Lavern Nolan of Prairie View, Ill., rode alone skidded into a northbound car driven by Charles Pratzner of Chicago. Nolan, Pratzner and three Chicagoans who were with Pratzner were taken to Evanston hospital.

Eldorado, Ill., Dec. 1—(AP)—Funeral service will be held here Sunday for Lindolph O. Trigg, 70, editor and publisher of the Eldorado Daily Journal. He died of a heart ailment in Ferrell hospital here yesterday.

Service will be conducted at the Calvary Baptist church at 2:30 p.m. Sunday by the Rev. Stanley Anderson. Burial will be at Sunset Hill cemetery at Harrisburg.

Rock Island, Ill., Dec. 1—(AP)—Mary Van Meulebroek, who conducted a private crusade against slot machines, has her eye on a county judgeship.

Miss Van Meulebroek, 26, obtained petitions yesterday at the county court house where she appeared for a hearing on charges of perjury and extortion.

She said she will be a candidate for the republican nomination for Rock Island county judge in the April primary. Edward J. Turnbaugh, the incumbent, also is seeking the republican nomination.

Paris, Dec. 1—(AP)—The North Atlantic treaty nations bid for peace tonight by writing a plan for defense in war.

The 12 members agreed to mold their armed forces into a single wall of steel to halt any aggression from the Soviet-controlled east.

The plan, formally approved after three days of secret meetings by generals, admirals and cabinet ministers of the pact nations, opens the way for a $1,000,000,000 flood of United States military assistance to war-imperished European governments.

U. S. Defense Secretary Louis Johnson, the chairman, said the gathering was harmonious. He took off by plane for Washington, to put the plan on President Truman's desk tomorrow. Approval by the president will release the American funds.

A communiqué issued by the North Atlantic Defense committee, made up of the top military planners of the western world, said the objective of the plan is "adequate military strength accompanied by economy of resources and manpower."

Chicago, Dec. 1—(AP)—The International Harvester company released to the Farm Equipment union today the bulk of checkoff dues which the company held in escrow since Nov. 7.

A company spokesman said the money was withheld from FE pending clarification of the union's status as bargaining agent.

This position was taken as a result of FE's ouster by the CIO in October and FE's merger with the United Electrical Workers, also dropped by the CIO.

Under the checkoff method an employer deducts the worker's union dues from his paycheck and turns it over to his union.

Chicago, Dec. 1—(AP)—U.S. agents seized 69 frozen turkeys and a barrel of frozen chickens today after inspectors for the pure food and drug administration pronounced the shipments unsanitary.

Assistant U. S. Attorney William S. White filed actions to condemn the turkeys, sent from Red Turkey, Inc., Altura, Minn., and the chickens, from the Todds Poultry Dressing plant in Warsaw, Ind. Both shipments were bound for cold storage warehouses in Chicago.

Philadelphia, Dec. 1—(AP)—William H. Hastie today was sworn in as the first negro judge of a U. S. circuit court of appeals.

Miners Joyous As Lewis Calls Off Full-Scale Strike

Paychecks Needed As Xmas Nears

Pittsburgh, Dec. 1—(AP)—Hard-pressed striking cool miners who faced a bleak Christmas without paychecks cheered today at John L. Lewis' order for a three-day work week.

"Three days work is better than none," happily grinned veteran digger Joe Mehok of Bridgeville, Pa.

That about summed up sentiment of the miners who only yesterday resigned themselves to a Yule holiday without much Santa Claus.

A three-week strike truce expired last midnight. The nation's 400,000 soft coal miners trooped from the pits. The coal production was stopped cold.

Fourth Strike This Year

Eleven hours after the fourth coal strike in a year began, Lewis with backing of the 200-mar. United Mine Worker policy committee decreed the three-day work week beginning Monday.

The short work week also will apply to the 80,000 eastern Pennsylvania anthracite miners and the 22,000 UMW members east of the Mississippi not affected by a previous three-day week.

At the same time Lewis said the UMW will seek separate contracts with the operators instead of a national pact.

The coal operators took a dim view of the Lewis pronouncements.

The three-day week is "inhuman and it is wrong," declared George H. Love, spokesman for the operators negotiating committee of the national bituminous wage conference.

Today's brief coal strike—it will actually last two days since Saturday is an optional work day and Sunday the mines are idle—even brought some violence.

Non-Union Miner Beaten

A non-union strip mine operator and one of his workmen were reported beaten at Lost Creek, W. Va., about six miles from Clarksburg.

Although miners were happy to get the extra work in before Christmas, many found themselves in the same fix as one Liberty, Pa., digger who said:

"Even if it weren't for Christmas, we'd still be in a hole. I could work now until the end of April and never draw a cent over five dollars a month. That's how much I owe the company store."

Others echoed the word of UMW representative Dennis Marshall of Pittsburgh District Five. He greeted word of the work return order with:

"That's good news. The prospects of a Christmas without work weren't very bright."

Treaty Nations Write Up Program Defense For War

Paris, Dec. 1—(AP)—The North Atlantic treaty nations bid for peace tonight by writing a plan for defense in war.

The 12 members agreed to mold their armed forces into a single wall of steel to halt any aggression from the Soviet-controlled east.

The plan, formally approved after three days of secret meetings by generals, admirals and cabinet ministers of the pact nations, opens the way for a $1,000,000,000 flood of United States military assistance to war-imperished European governments.

FE Gets Checkoff Dues Held By IHC

Chicago, Dec. 1—(AP)—The International Harvester company released to the Farm Equipment union today the bulk of checkoff dues which the company held in escrow since Nov. 7.

A company spokesman said the money was withheld from FE pending clarification of the union's status as bargaining agent.

May Ordered To Start Serving Bribery Term

Washington, Dec. 1—(AP)—A plea for mercy for former Rep. Andrew May had agreed to accept $53,000 in W. May (D-Ky.), one of Washington's most influential men during the war, was turned down today, and he was ordered to start serving an 8 to 24-month sentence for bribery and conspiracy.

The Garsson brothers, Murray and Henry, were ordered to begin serving similar sentences, despite a dramatic sobbing appeal by Murray Garsson, who pointed to Henry and cried:

"Please, judge, give me a double sentence and let this man go!"

Because the 74-year-old May pleaded ill health, he was permitted to remain at his Prestonburg, Ky., home instead of appearing in court today. He will report to federal officers on Saturday to begin his term.

The Garssons began serving their sentences immediately.

During the war May headed the important House Military Affairs committee, and the Garssons built a $75,000,000 munitions empire, less.

Each was given an 8 to 24-month sentence then, but had remained out on bond while their appeals were being argued. Twice the supreme court refused to review their trial. Today's session before Federal Judge Henry A. Schweinhaut was one final appeal for mercy—an effort to get the judge either to put them on probation or, failing that, to reduce the length of their terms.

The defense lawyers had made these arguments: May—heart trouble, failing health and comparative poverty brought on by the expense of defending himself should be considered.

Garssons—Murray, 54, has had two serious eye operations, and will need another; Henry, 51, an expert engineer with many honors is now like his brother, practically penniless.

In July, 1947, a jury decided that for mercy for former Rep. Andrew May had agreed to accept $53,000 in W. May (D-Ky.), one of Washington's most influential men during the war, was turned down today, and he was ordered to start serving an 8 to 24-month sentence for bribery and conspiracy.

Miners Put On 3-Day Work Week

New York, Dec. 1—(AP)—John L. Lewis called off a full scale strike by the nation's 400,000 soft coal miners today and put them on a three-day work week instead.

The three-day work week, effective next Monday, also will apply to most of the 80,000 hard coal miners who have been working a five-day week.

Abandoning his fight for nationwide contracts, the mine union chief announced that the short work week will continue until individual coal companies sign agreements.

The action today came in the form of a resolution which was approved by Lewis' 200-man policy committee. Meetings of the committee had been postponed daily this week by Lewis while he developed his strategy.

Lewis gave no reason for the policy adopted.

The resolution speaks for itself and there will be no amplification," he said.

Reactions to the UMW move were prompt and sharp.

Soft coal miners, who walked off their jobs when a three-week strike truce expired last midnight, were jubilant. The cheerless prospect of a Christmas without paychecks was ended.

Mine operators were angry. Some said Lewis was trying to split the industry's hitherto solid front. One called his action "inhuman and wrong."

However, in Key West, Fla., President Truman's top labor consultant, John R. Steelman, labeled the situation a kind of truce and predicted it would usher in a "long period of industrial peace."

Knew He Wouldn't Call Strike

The president, associates said, knew in advance that Lewis wouldn't call a full-scale strike and thus risk having emergency provisions of the Taft-Hartley act invoked against him.

Steelman said he had reason to believe the union and the operators have moved closer together recently in the long-drawn-out wage and welfare fund struggle.

On the New York Stock Exchange prices rose from a few cents to a tot of more than $3 a share with news that the strike was ending.

There was no great enthusiasm in eastern Pennsylvania's hard coal fields, however. Miners there now are working five days a week. The new policy will cut $2 out of every $5 in the mine workers' paychecks.

Lewis and his scale committee were authorized to make contracts separately with individual companies—tossing out immediate efforts to win a nationwide contract. The resolution said that the short week—with production only Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, and an "irreducible minimum of maintenance work" on the other days—would be dropped as contracts are signed.

Lewis' action brought varying comment from the operators.

Dr. M. Fishbein Quits As Editor Of AMA Journal

Chicago, Dec. 1—(AP)—Dr. Morris Fishbein has left his job with the American Medical Association.

For the first time in 37 years, he said today, he no longer is editor of the AMA Journal. He said he has retired.

"It was impossible for me to continue under the circumstances," he said. "I could not produce the type of medical journal that I was accustomed to. I could not speak out freely and vigorously on issues which I felt were important."

The AMA clipped Dr. Fishbein's powers last June. The board of trustees forbade him to discuss controversial matters and appointed Dr. Austin Smith as his successor "when Dr. Fishbein retires."

SEEKS LAW BARRING WOMEN ATHLETICS

WE MUST KEEP STOCKPILE EDGE ON RUSSIA UNTIL IT'S NEEDLESS

The United States news has revealed how big a stockpile of atom bombs it has or how many it is producing yearly. These facts have been closely guarded secrets and speculation about them has not been specific as to numbers.

Now, however, the United States News has come forth with some bold estimates. It guesses the current stockpile to be at least 250 atom bombs and predicts that by 1952 the figure will be 850. Output is calculated at around 200 bombs a year.

The magazine goes on to state that this production rate is considered to be the peacetime maximum for the nation by Dr. J. Robert Oppenheimer, one of the bomb's developers.

No authority is quoted as a source for these vital figures. The estimates are offered flatly, presumably as informed guesses. The only clue the News gives is that the atom bomb article was prepared at Lake Success, site of the United Nations and affiliated agencies.

Since the specific figures appeared, no denial or confirmation has been issued by any government source. There is no way of knowing how accurate the estimates may be. But it is nevertheless worth noting that a national magazine has felt sufficient confidence in its information not only to print the figures in the body of a story but to splash them across its cover page.

The U. S. News was not content to estimate American atom bomb output. It said that by 1952, when the U. S. is supposed to have 850 bombs, Russia will have about 100. "That is the considered estimate of a number of U. S. atomic scientists appraising the capabilities of Russia," added the magazine.

If we suppose the estimates are soundly based, then what do they mean?

At first glance, a 1952 margin of 850 U. S. bombs to 100 Russian ones would seem to be decisive. But UN officials are said to believe the U. S. advantage is not really great. The argument is made that atom bomb targets are chiefly limited to big cities and that Russia has about a dozen fewer of these than the United States.

Thus, it is contended, the United States would be hard put to bring its numerical edge to bear upon the Soviet Union in the event of war. On the other hand, Russia's supply of bombs would definitely be enough to use against all major big city targets in this country.

Offhand, it looks as if there were much room for debate in this field. It is quite an assumption to declare that atom bombs will be useful only against industrial and other targets in large urban centers. The weapon has been a reality for just three years and perhaps it's a bit early to speak with too much finality about its uses. Conceptions of strategic and tactical bombing are altered steadily.

Until the atom bomb has been an element in military planners' thinking for longer than a few years, there can be little point in writing off so casually a better than 8 to 1 advantage or whatever margin the U. S. may actually enjoy over Russia in the period just ahead.

To suggest that our stockpile edge is of no real value is virtually to propose that this country spend its atom-bomb funds on some less costly and more fruitful enterprise. Americans know too little about the likely nature of a future war and about the intentions of their probable enemies to consider such a course anything but a bad risk.

Pasteurized Milk Does Not Destroy Nutritious Value

By Edwin P. Jordan, M.D.
Written for NEA Service

Milk is one of the most valuable and widely used foods available to man. It provides energy and contains some minerals and is rich in carbohydrates, fats and proteins.

Besides its excellent nutritive value, milk can carry disease germs. Germs which milk, too, and can grow in it with great speed. The germs can get into milk directly from an infected cow or may drop in anywhere along its path between the cow and the consumer. Infected milk has caused disease in many people. The germ of tuberculosis is carried in milk. Typhoid fever, septic sore throat and undulant fever or brucellosis are also spread by contaminated milk.

The spread of disease germs through milk can be checked. The way to do this is simple and well known. It is only necessary to use a process of treating milk with heat which destroys the disease germs which may be present. This heat treatment is called pasteurization—a name which it received from the great French pioneer in bacteriology, Louis Pasteur.

Cows Must Be Healthy
Destroying germs by heating is no excuse for supplying consumers with dirty milk. The more healthy the cows, the cleaner the collecting methods, the transportation and the bottling, the fewer the germs which have to be destroyed by pasteurization. Great steps forward have been made in getting cleaner milk.

Anyone who realizes the protection which they and their families have been given by pasteurization of milk should feel that a great step forward has been taken. To go back to the old unprotected raw milk would expose people to the unnecessary danger of catching disease germs through milk which they drink.

Note: Dr. Jordan is unable to answer individual questions from readers. However, each day he will answer one of the most frequently asked questions in his column.

THE DOCTOR ANSWERS

By Edwin P. Jordan, M.D.

QUESTION: I am 70 years old. When evening comes my feet are swollen and puffed at the ankles but by morning they are back to normal. Can you give a good reason for this trouble?

ANSWER: There is probably something wrong either with your heart or with the circulation in your legs. There are a few other but far less likely possibilities.

Small Girl Has Skull Fracture From Tumble

Jerseyville—Mary Florence Collins, four year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Collins, suffered a linear fracture of the outer portion of the skull when she fell from an automobile to the pavement Monday afternoon, while she and her mother were enroute to Alton.

Mrs. Collins and the child were driving south on Route 67 when the rear door of the right hand side of the car became opened and Mary Florence fell out.

She was brought immediately to Jerseyville and taken to the office of a local physician. Tuesday, the child was taken to the Alton Memorial hospital for X-ray examination where it was found that she had suffered the linear outer fracture of the skull. She was brought to her home Tuesday afternoon where she is recovering from the injury.

Stay Away From That Ole Rockin' Chair

By Hal Boyle

New York—(P)—The poor man's philosopher presents his annual soapbox lecture on old age:

One of the things that makes the United States great is that it has the youngest-minded grandmas and grandpas in the world.

In other countries a man is as old as his neighbors think he should be. But here he can really act as young as he feels. And people are getting so they feel younger every generation.

This refusal to grow old ranks as a far more important American contribution to global culture than the invention of cornflakes or the all-night sock.

It is even more important financially. People are willing to spend more hard cash to keep young and handsome than to make themselves comfortable.

There is a pension psychology rampant in the land, but the old rocking chair philosophy is gone forever. Nobody is looking forward to getting government lettuce at 65 just to rent himself a chimney corner. Nope, the old folks at home aren't so anxious to stay at home.

They want to buy a sports roadster and tour Florida or California. Ask Dr. Townsend.

People are marrying younger today and living longer. They get through the chillun-raising period sooner, but that doesn't mean they want to call life quits. More and more they spend their declining years declining to admit that their only remaining function is to baby-sit their grandchildren.

Look around you and see who's doing the knitting and quilting. Not grandmas. All that's too old-fashioned for her. She's taken up painting—like Grandma Moses. And grandpa's gone fishing.

There are more people in their forties and fifties taking rumba lessons than youngsters in their twenties or thirties.

It's the oldtimers, too, who buy the most lotions and war paint and keep the barbers and dentists in clover. They're going to look their best if it busts an artery.

All these antics of the elderly stir a major grudge in the hearts of the minors.

"Why don't those old fools act their age," they grumble. But this can be put down as plain juvenile resentment. Let 'em wait. They'll have their turn.

FIVE CHILDREN TO RECEIVE SACRAMENT

The regular morning service of the State Street church will have added beauty and impressiveness Sunday when five young children will receive the Sacrament of Baptism at the hands of the minister, the Rev. Lewis N. Raymond.

During the ministry of the present pastor the church receives new members only on Communion Sunday and at this service six new members will be received into full and active membership. The Sacrament of Holy Communion will be observed this Sunday and as a special Communion number Miss Ailred Gabriel will sing, "How Far Is It to Bethlehem."

MT. CARMEL MAN HEADS HIGHWAY SUPERINTENDENTS

Springfield, Ill., Dec. 1—(P)—Robert Lathrop of Mt. Carmel was elected President of the Illinois Association of county superintendents of highways at the group's annual meeting yesterday.

Lathrop, highway superintendent in Edwards county, succeeded Frank Adair of Quincy.

S. W. Carlson of Belleville was elected vice president and G. Conrad Miller of Lincoln, secretary-treasurer. They are superintendents in Boone and Logan counties, respectively.

Thieves Help Driver Unload Merchandise

Fourteen Gabardine jackets consigned to a Jacksonville men's store were stolen from a Hayes transport truck Wednesday afternoon while merchandise was being unloaded in the rear of the Sears, Roebuck & Co. store on the north side of the square. The jackets disappeared while the driver made a brief trip into the store to carry other packages.

Police were informed by the transport driver that the jackets were consigned to Mac's Clothes shop on the west side of the square, which he was to visit on his next stop. Chief Frank Kiloran and Patrolman Arthur Wood; began an immediate investigation.

Two men were seen loitering in the vicinity of the Sears unloading dock at the hour the jackets disappeared. One of the men remained in a car, while the other stood on the sidewalk as if waiting for someone. The merchandise is believed to have been tossed out of the truck within the space of a minute, and loaded into a waiting car.

Reports from Springfield indicated that a similar robbery occurred Wednesday near the John Bressner Co. store, where three cartons of merchandise were stolen from an interstate truck. State police joined local officers in investigating the robbery. Descriptions of the suspects and their car were broadcast.

ARMY AID CHIEF—Maj.-Gen. L. L. Lemnitzer, above, heading the Defense Department's new "office of military assistance," will have the responsibility of shipping arms to Europe under the military assistance program.

Tour Of Chicago Planned By Home Bureau Board

Plans for the Chicago tour on Dec. 8 and 9 were made by the Morgan Scott Home Bureau executive board at a meeting held in Farm Bureau hall, with Mrs. James Dunlap, county chairman, presiding.

The tour will include several radio shows, and visits to Swift & Co. and the Merchandise Mart. The group will leave here at 5:30 a.m.

Plans were also discussed concerning the annual Farm Bureau dinner at the I.O.O.F. hall on Dec. 2.

The meeting was attended by ten members.

YUGOSLAVIA BEGINS RUSSIAN SPY TRIAL

Sarajevo, Yugoslavia, Dec. 1—(P)—Yugoslavia began its trial of an accused Russian spy ring today with the announcement that one of the suspects had committed suicide to escape prosecution.

Ten "white guards"—Russians who fled to Yugoslavia after the 1918 revolution but took up Soviet citizenship after the last war—were lined up in the dock in front of pistol-toting militiamen.

The defendants are charged with funneling information to Russia through the Soviet embassy in Belgrade.

The average hen will lay somewhere between 180 and 345 eggs per year depending upon the breed and various other conditions. Orange trees are evergreens.

Carrollton Group To Hold Christmas Party On Dec. 15

Carrollton—The Missionary group of the Baptist church do not have its regular monthly business meeting and program Thursday but did meet for an all-day reading at the home of Mrs. L. J. Powell, reading chairman. The home mission book, "Mission at the Grass Roots" by William T. Shriver, was read.

According to present plans the regular meeting of the organization will be held Thursday, Dec. 15, at the home of Mrs. A. J. Sharon. The Christmas program of the society is held annually at the Sharon home. Mrs. Ivan Beebe will be the program leader at this meeting, her topic being "The Star Appeareth." Mrs. J. F. Hubbard will be devotional leader.

The Women's Missionary society of the Presbyterian church met on Thursday afternoon in the church for a business session. No program had been planned.

The W.S.C.S. of the Methodist church met Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Charles Boyd. Mrs. Franklin March was devotional leader and the program topic was presented by Mrs. Stella Adams.

Private Capital To Build Dorms For State Schools

Springfield, Ill., Dec. 1.—(AP)—New dormitories will be constructed with private capital on a self-liquidating plan at three state teachers colleges, Noble J. Puffer, state registration and education director, announced today.

Puffer said that plans for new dormitories are completed or in the completion stage for Illinois State Normal university at Normal, Eastern Illinois State college at Charleston, and Northern Illinois State Teachers college at DeKalb.

Puffer, who also is State Teachers college board chairman, said the dormitories will accommodate 924 students. Buildings will consist of two units of 154 beds each.

He said that building such structures on a self-liquidating plan will save the state hundreds of thousands of dollars in construction costs. Bonds to be issued by private lending agencies will be liquidated with interest in 30 years.

Grandmother Grabs Daily Television Role

Relishing her new role as a full-fledged television star on her own daily program, silvery-haired Alice Burrows unsnarls a home-sewing problem for her television audience.

At an age—62—when most women have settled down to dandle their grandchildren on their knees, Alice Burrows started her career. Pretty, silvery-haired and bristling with energy, Mrs. Burrows is a full-fledged television star of her own making, and a grandma, too.

"Starting a career at my age has definite advantages," she insists. "I was so 'green,' for instance, that I didn't even know it was 'impossible' to break into television. So-o when I applied for the role of television teacher I was hired on the spot to do a daily 15-minute sewing session. The Needle Shop, over Station WABD."

For her daily quarter-hour TV program on which she cuts, sews, and untangles the snarls of home-sewing problems for her television audience, Mrs. Burrows puts in a regular workweek and finds herself left occasionally with homework to do.

"But being experienced," says Mrs. Burrows, "I knew a lot of shortcuts."

I can cook, baby-sit for my daughter and even find time to see my favorite sports, the trotting races and tennis matches.

"Three good reasons why she likes being a career woman are—explained in brief: 'My husband and daughter think I'm something special and are proud of me. My two grandchildren, eight and 10, watch my program and are thrilled that 'everyone knows grandma'; and I enjoy sewing."

Her daytime television audience enjoys sewing, too, as is witnessed by the fan mail that pours in from all over the country. "I guess these white hairs must make me look motherly," Mrs. Burrows says, regarding her mature beauty which suggests a Dresden-figurine. "I get mail that begs for help. One man, for example, wrote a letter pleading with me to do something to influence his wife to darn his socks. He'd been walking around, he said, with his heels and toes popping out."

To satisfy the queries of men, from whom comes much sewing program mail, Mrs. Burrows has held special television programs beamed at the sturdier sex. "I gave them the lowdown on turning shirt collars and cuffs, sewing on dangling buttons and showed them how to let out trouser tops for that 'middle-age spread.' The response was amazing."

"I get letters from women of my age—asking advice, and I tell them what I honestly think—that every grandmother, or mature woman should do something important—work at a hobby, a new career, a special interest. It gives a terrific lift, allows the children more freedom and gives 'grandma' something to bring to her children and grandchildren instead of living vicariously in their exciting youth."

CASH AND CARRY SERVICE FOR ROBBERS

Chicago—(P)—Mrs. Bertie Kaplan made sure that burglars wouldn't get away with her cash and jewelry—and they didn't. Just before she left the house, she put $120 and three rings in her purse. She had walked about a block when two robbers snatched the purse.

"NICE WORK, OL' SOCK!"—Joseph Dolinaj of Dunnellen, N. J., crochets as usual after winning first prize in the "Men Only" division of a national crocheting contest in Chicago. Dolinaj, a railroad signal towerman, took up needlework five years ago after betting his wife $5 he could beat her at the art.

"THERE AIN'T NO WHAT!?"—Domenick Locicero, age 2, of New York, finds little cause to doubt the Santa Claus story, surrounded as he is by a whole platoon of sidewalk Santas. The merry men are part of a 24 Santa Claus contingent sent out by the Volunteers of America to seek donations. Each of the old gentlemen attended a special three-day course in deportment before setting to work.

Cass Co. Farm Bureau Board Names Directors

Ashland—Three directors for the Cass county farm Bureau board were nominated at the meeting held at the American Legion hall in the city Monday evening.

Farm Bureau members from Newmansville, Philadelphia and Ashland townships were present. A. B. Carls of this city was chosen director on the Farm Bureau board from this township, and Alfred Casner was selected to represent the Philadelphia township. Silas DeGroot was re-nominated from Newmansville.

John Collins was brought to the home of his parents-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy Klein, from the Memorial hospital, Springfield, where he has been a patient for the past three weeks. Collins had the misfortune to get caught in a corn picker at his father-in-law's farm and lost his left leg, right foot and left arm.

FAREWELL PARTY HONORS MRS. RUST

Ashland—Mrs. Gertrude Burgess, assisted by Mrs. Roth and Mrs. Flo Grady, entertained at her home near Tallula Monday night in honor of Mrs. Emma Rust, who with her family will move to Athens the last of December.

The evening was spent in having various contests. About 18 persons were present. Mrs. Rust was presented with a gift by the Loyal Daughters of the Christian church. Refreshments were served.

Certain types of television interference which make themselves known visually are called "snow" because they look just like that on the screen.

Birthday Party Given At Chapin

Chapin—Mrs. Mardelle Rigor entertained Tuesday afternoon at a party honoring her daughter, Gayle Elaine, on her third birthday anniversary. Favours distributed to the little guests were paper hats, balloons and candy-filled wagons. A candy hunt was enjoyed and several games were played. Refreshments were served. The guest of honor received many gifts.

Those present were Gayle Rigor, Caroline Goodrich, Dolores Thompson, Gwendolyn Johnson, Michael Ward, Mary Lynn Evans, Donald Rigor, Judy Putnam, Janet Litter, David Litter, Mrs. Raymond Massey, Mrs. Gordon Johnson, Mrs. Edna Thompson, Mrs. Donald Putnam, Mrs. Dale Litter, Mrs. John Evans, Mrs. Armond Goodrich and the hostess, Mrs. Mardelle Rigor.

Norma J. Gooden, James Watts Wed In Waverly Rites

Waverly—The marriage of Miss Norma Jean Gooden, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. V. Gooden, and James Watts, son of Mr. and Mrs. P. O. Watts, was solemnized in a double-ring ceremony performed Sunday at 2:30 p.m. by Rev. Bronson N. Smith at the First Methodist church in Waverly.

Miss Donna Gooden, sister of the bride, was bridesmaid, and William Watts served his brother as best man. The ushers were James V. Gooden, Jr., brother of the bride, and Donald Davis, brother-in-law of the bridegroom.

Mrs. J. V. Gooden, Jr., sang "Because" and "Always," accompanied at the organ by Miss Mattie Deatherage, who also played the traditional wedding marches.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was attired in a gray suit, with which she wore black accessories and a corsage of pink carnations. Her attendants wore a gray suit with black accessories and a corsage of red roses.

Following the ceremony, a reception was given in the church parlors, after which the couple left on a short wedding trip. Upon returning they will reside in Waverly.

The bride is a graduate of Waverly High school. Her husband was graduated from Beardstown High School. He served two and a half years in the air corps during World War II and was held prisoner in a German camp 11 months. He is now associated with his father and brother as a contractor and carpenter.

THIEF HAS A HOT FOOT

Orlando, Fla. (AP)—One James found out he had better watch his step after this. Picked up by Police, Lieut. Joe Beach on suspicion in the theft of a $20 bill, James told a convincing story and was released.

As he left headquarters, police notice he had a slight list to starboard. Closer examination showed the sole of James' left shoe was a bit thicker than the right. The $20 bill was folded under the sole. In jail, James said, "I'd have gotten away if I'd just squatted a little."

Barbara Craig Becomes Bride Of Fred Holland

Miss Barbara Craig, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Craig, 472 South Mauvaisterre street, became the bride of Fred Holland, son of Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Holland, 502 Jordan street, Monday evening, Nov. 23, at 10 o'clock at the First Baptist church parsonage. The single ring service was performed by Rev. Clair Malcomson, in the presence of a small group of relatives. The young couple was attended by Mr. and Mrs. William Holland, brother and sister-in-law of the groom. The bride wore a street length dress of blue crepe silk, with gray accessories. The bridesmaid was attired in a gray tweed suit and dark green accessories. Mrs. Holland was graduated last spring from Jacksonville High school, and during the summer was employed in the office of Sears' Coldspot repair shop. Mr. Holland attended school at Mason City, Iowa, and has just completed three years' service in the U. S. Air Force, returning from Japan on May 5 of this year. He will enroll soon in the Lincoln automobile mechanics' trade school at Springfield. FOX AND WOLF DRIVE Assemble Chapin Legion Home Sunday, Dec. 4—9 a.m. Lunch will be served.

JERSEYVILLE

Jerseyville—Mrs. Margaret Buchanan returned Sunday from a month's visit with relatives in Hammond, Indiana and Chicago. Mrs. Anna Richardson and son, Harvey of Hammond, motored to Jerseyville to accompany her to Indiana. She was a dinner guest on Thanksgiving at the home of her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Waggener in Chicago.

Mrs. Joseph Snodgrass and Miss Regina Ruyle left Wednesday evening for Albuquerque, New Mexico where they will spend the winter months.

Mr. and Mrs. Powell M. Woody who reside South of Jerseyville are the parents of a girl, Brenda Gail, born Nov. 29 at their home. The baby weighed eight pounds.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Steelman have returned to their home in Sesser, Ill., after several days visit here with the former's parents Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Steelman. They moved to Sesser recently from Benton, Ill., and Mr. Steelman is a member of the faculty of the Sesser high school and Mrs. Steelman teaches in the grade schools there. Mr. and Mrs. Steelman and their guests and Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Church were also guests in Winchester of Mrs. W. A. Steelman's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Overton.

Mrs. F. Gorecki of South Standard, Ill., is spending a week here at the home of her son and daughter-in-law, Dr. and Mrs. F. Gorecki and made the acquaintance of her infant granddaughter, Janet Joann Gerneck.

Six I. C. Students To Be In "Who's Who"

Miss Mary Lee Coultas, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas O. Coultas, rural route 2, Chapin, is one of six students at Illinois college who will be included in the 1949-50 edition of "Who's Who among Students in American Universities and Colleges," it was announced by H. Pettus Randall, editor.

Other I. C. students selected for publication are Charles A. Baldwin of Bridgeport, Conn., Robert L. Grove of Canton, Donald G. Lonzer of Danville, Miss Faith A. Metzler of McHenry and Miss M. Jean Miller of South Bend, Ind. The candidates were chosen jointly by the faculty and the student body, on the basis of scholarship and leadership in campus activities. The publication includes students from 600 universities and colleges in the United States.

Miss Coultas, a senior, is vice-president of Gamma Delta literary society and president of the Women's Inter-Society board, having been secretary of the board last year. She was elected homecoming queen for 1948.

A past president of the Illinois College Association of Women, she has also been a member of the Student forum, the student governing body, for two years and was previously a member of the lecturing committee. She is a graduate of Jacksonville high school, class of 1946.

Baldwin, a senior, is a member of the Student Forum, and was president of Sigma Pi literary society last spring. He is also a member of Pi Kappa Delta, national honorary fraternal fraternity, and is a past winner of the Sanders oratorical contest. He has also been active in the Student Christian association.

Grove, a junior, is vice president of the college student body, and president of the Student Forum. He is a three-year letterman in football, basketball and baseball, and is one of two student directors of the college intramural athletic program. In his freshman year he was a reporter for the Rambler, student newspaper. A married naval veteran, he has one son.

Longer, a senior, is president of the college student body. Last year he was vice-president, as well as president of the Student Forum. Captain of the 1949 varsity football team on which he played left end, he is also center on the basketball squad. In addition, he is one of two student directors of the college intramural athletic program.

Metzler, a junior, was the 1949 homecoming queen at the college. She is treasurer of Sigma Phi Epsilon literary society and secretary of the Women's Inter-Society board. She was chairman of the student union committee last year, and was a member of the Student Forum in her freshman year.

Miss Miller, a senior, was recently elected to Phi Beta Kappa, national scholastic honorary society on the basis of her junior standing. She attained preliminary honors in her sophomore year, and holds the Rammeck scholarship, established in honor of former President Rammeck of the college, which is awarded to the highest ranking man and woman in each of the three upper classes. Last year she was co-editor of the Ritz Veda, the student yearbook, as well as president of Chi Beta Literary society.

CHICAGO LIVESTOCK MARKET REPORT

Chicago, Dec. 1.—(AP)—Hogs reversed yesterday's higher trend today to coast 25 to 50 cents lower. Receipts continued large, running the largest single week's aggregate on salable supply for some five years. The total had reached an estimated 73,000 head by today. Cattle were unevenly strong to 25 cents lower, and sheep steady to 25 cents higher.

Good and choice butcher hogs brought $14.50 to $16 generally, but two loads topped at $16.10. Sows were $11.50 to $13.75, a few topping at $14.

A few high-good to choice steers sold at $36 but little else registered choice. Medium and good steers were $21.50 to $31 and most medium to low-good heifers took $21 to $25.50. One lot of good to choice heifers sold at $31. Good cows topped at $18, good bulls at $19.50, and choice vealers at $26.

Woolled lambs topped at $19.50, and choice vealers at $26. Woolled lambs topped at $23.25, shorn at $21.50, yearlings at $19, and ewes at $11.

Estimated receipts on sale included 16,000 hogs, 3,500 cattle, 500 calves, and 2,500 sheep.

Crimsons, Tigers In Local Basketball Debuts Tonight

Hilltoppers Entertain McKendree In Initial Home Game Saturday

The same Illinois College basketball team that finished well up in the CCI conference race a year ago will appear before Jacksonville fans for the first time Saturday night when they mix it up with McKendree's Bearcat five.

Still smarting from an 80-42 defeat hung on them by Murray State, Ken., Tuesday, the Hilltoppers are in Mt. Pleasant, Iowa today where they'll mix it up with Iowa Wesleyan in game-number two on their schedule.

Confident that they'll give a good account of themselves both this evening and Saturday, the mound college athletes are facing both foes for the first time in a decade.

McKendree, though not a potent club a year ago, may be able to give the locals all they want Saturday night. The Bearcats boast added strength this season in the person of Bobby Lee, scrappy little guard who was a regular on the Mt. Vernon state prep championship team last season.

With only two weeks of intermittent practices and two games under their belts the pressure will be on the veteran studded Illinois College bunch. Besides returning Grove, Shouse, Gross, Longer, Viik, Murrin, Billings, DeGroot, Lasley and Miller, college fans will have their first opportunity to see newcomers Dori, Kinsell, Meyers, O'Leary, Hendricks and Aderon.

These last named cagers will comprise the "B" team which swings into action at 6:30 p.m. against a highly rated Nebo independent outfit that rolled to an overwhelming victory over the Blueboy seconds here last year. Nebo features Kay Schumann, a high scoring, left-handed forward, who threw in 40 points against the Hilltoppers. The feature bout will get underway at 8 p.m. on the I.S.D. pine.

Baseball Officials Gather To Discuss Minors' Meetings

New York, Dec. 1.—(P)—The baseball pot began to boil today as the clan gathered to talk over matters before next week's minor league meetings at Baltimore.

Manager Leo Durocher of the New York Giants flew into town for a conference with club executives. It is reported that the Giants have tied together a package deal with the Boston Braves but nobody would say.

At a news conference in the Giant downtown offices, Durocher revealed that hard-hitting Sid Gordon would be given a trial as a catcher next spring.

Gordon has played third base, first base and outfield for the Giants since he came up from Jersey City at the close of the 1941 season.

Durocher said he had two or three ideas on the fire that were "very close" to being completed. Other than to say that all involved National league clubs he would not elaborate.

All-Star Guard Says He Received No Financial Aid

Philadelphia, Dec. 1.—(P)—All-America guard John "Bull" Schweder never got a nickel's worth of help for playing football.

The 200-pound Penn. lineman laughs at the popular theory that All America football players are in good shape financially with the school and or alumni taking care of them.

The 22-year-old Bethlehem (Pa.) athlete, who is married and the father of a six-month-old son, said today the only aid he has received is under the GI Bill of Rights.

"Next week I start waiting on tables in the basketball training house," he said.

Schweder, who graduates next June and plans to play pro football for the Philadelphia Eagles, starred in all eight of Penn's games this season and was particularly in evidence the afternoon a fired-up Red and Blue eleven threw the scare of the year into unbeaten Army. The Cadets won 14 to 13 but it wasn't Schweder's fault.

Being an All-American is fun, says waiter Schweder but "believe me it isn't all gravy."

Colliers Magazine Names 1949 Grid All-Star Eleven

New York, Dec. 1.—(P)—Collier's Weekly announced its 1949 all-star football team today and the name of Southern Methodist's Doak Walker was omitted—at his own request.

The crack SMU back, picked by Collier's in 1948, was out of action part of the season with the flu and a leg injury. Aware that he was being considered again this year, the magazine said Walker wrote its coaches' board "I believe that there are other All-American candidates who have seen more action and therefore are more deserving of consideration."

The action prompted Collier's editors to name the Doaker "player of the year for sportsmanship."

The Collier's all-star includes six players from the midwest, two from the east, and one each from the south, southwest and far west.

The team: Ends—Leon Hart, Notre Dame, and Jim (Froggy) Williams, Rice. Tackles—Wade Walker, Oklahoma, and Leo Nomellini, Minnesota.

Guards—Rod Franz, California, and Bernie Barkouskie, Pittsburgh.

Center—Clayton Tonnemaker, Minnesota.

Quarterback—Arnold Galiffa, Army.

Halfbacks—Charley Justice, North Carolina, and Lynn Chandross, Michigan State.

Pullback—Emil Sitko, Notre Dame.

Byrnes Declares He Will Not Run For President

Greenville, S.C., Dec. 1.—(P)—Former Secretary of State James F. Byrnes flatly declared today that he would not be a candidate for the presidency or vice-presidency of the United States in 1952.

He said, however, that he would continue to express his views on national and international affairs regardless of whether they are in accord with the views of any political party.

A possible candidate for the South Carolina governorship in 1950, Byrnes told newsmen in an interview he would not be a candidate for either of the nation's top two political offices under the banner of any political party.

Gov. Kerr Scott of North Carolina recently was quoted as saying there was much speculation during the southern governors conference that Mr. Byrnes might be proposed by states' rights Democrats as the Democratic party's presidential candidate in 1952, and failing in that, then the states' righters might try to persuade him to run as a states' rights candidate.

Northwestern Wins Hardwood Opener

Evanston, Ill., Dec. 1.—(P)—Northwestern University's basketball team won its opening game of the 1949-50 season tonight, defeating a non-conference foe, Western Michigan, 54 to 43, in Evanston's high school gymnasium.

The Wildcats led throughout the ragged contest and increased their lead to 21 half-time margin in the final period.

Great Aggregation Of Football Stars To Meet In Dallas

Dallas, Dec. 1.—(P)—One of the greatest aggregations of All-Americans in a single college football game comes up here Saturday when Southern Methodist plays undefeated, untied Notre Dame.

Also, the two men who have won both the Maxwell and Heisman awards within the past three seasons will be on the same field.

Notre Dame pitches in with three All-Americans—End Lyon Hart, Tackle James Martin and Back Emil Sitko. Southern Methodist has one—Doak Walker, quarterback.

Hart and Walker furnish the "awards" duo. Hart this year won the Heisman trophy, an honor that went to Walker in 1948. Hart was awarded the Maxwell trophy last season, Walker got it in 1947.

The biggest fly in the ointment, however, comes from the fact that Walker probably will sit this game out. He has a severe leg injury and Coach Matty Bell said today he didn't see how the Doaker could even hobble out onto the field.

Cleveland Slices Coaching Staff; Release 2 Men

Cleveland, Dec. 1.—(P)—The Cleveland Indians cut a big slice off their expensive coaching staff today by releasing two former big league baseball managers—Bill McKee and Steve O'Neill.

The move was regarded as another indication that the Tribe's new president, Ellis W. Ryan, intends to run the club more conservatively than unpredictable Bill Veech, his predecessor.

Last season the five-man coaching staff was regarded as probably the most expensive in baseball history. McKee, the former Cincinnati Reds coach, was believed to have received more than $40,000.

O'Neill earned considerably less but still was considered to have been comparatively high paid. He came to the Indians last season after coaching the Detroit Tigers six years.

Ryan said efforts would be made to place both men in the Tribe organization. McKee owns a prosperous citrus business in Florida, however, and it was believed he might retire from the game.

December Brings Wide Snow Band To Midwest Area

Chicago, Dec. 1.—(P)—December brought a wide band of snow into the midwest today. Fair to partly cloudy weather prevailed over most of the rest of the country.

The snow, falling in an area 200 to 300 miles wide, moved into southern Wisconsin and extreme northern Illinois then spread eastward into lower Michigan and northern Indiana.

From three to six inches covered areas of Illinois and Wisconsin. Except for some snow flurries near Lake Superior and northern Minnesota tonight, the fall was expected to give way before generally fair skies and lower temperatures.

Somewhat colder weather over-spread most of the western and central states, and the northeast continued to have rather cold readings.

The southeast had mild weather, but night temperatures there ran rather low, federal forecasters reported.

U. OF WASHINGTON GRID FANS CONFUSED

Seattle, Dec. 1.—(P)—Confused was a mild word for University of Washington football fans today when they learned their team rolled up 162 first downs to rank third in the nation and still lost seven games.

Only Stanford and Missouri topped Washington's huckles in the first down department. Each of these lost three games. Missouri won eight; Stanford won six, tied one, Washington won three.

NO. 26—SCORING A GAME—FINAL SCORING

You'll remember that in our last installment our bowler got a strike in his tenth frame and had two bonus rolls coming immediately. Both of these balls got strikes (1). Now he can finish his score (2). Ten for the strike in the tenth frame...ten for the first bonus ball and ten for the second—a total of thirty points for the tenth frame. Add that to the total score of the ninth frame and that's a score for the game (3) of 151. That's a very good score. In fact, if you're a beginning bowler, you shouldn't become discouraged if you're not that successful in your first attempts. It was necessary for us to allow our bowler to score that well only to give you all of the scoring situations. We feel now that you will agree that scoring an entire game is a simple matter. Remember, however, that as a scorer you must pay close attention to every roll.

In our next installment we will discuss a couple of safety rules for everyone to practice on the lanes. For a complete set of 3 handbooks on bowling fundamentals, send 25 cents to "BOWLING" care of this newspaper.

FAN BREEZES

BY BOB MERRIS

Dynamic, forceful, inspirational are all adjectives that fit University of Illinois football coach Ray Eliot to a "T." We're sure that after hearing him speak at the Kiwanis club banquet Thursday afternoon, any one of the JHS, ISD, Routh or Illinois College athletes was ready to take on double his weight in lions.

Ray took a time-worn speech and made it sound good to the 160 men and boys who listened attentively. There wasn't an athlete or booster in the room who wasn't firmly convinced that Ray Eliot believed what he said when he thundered "if you've got the will to win, you'll win."

The Illinois coach's ability to orate so dramatically has proved useful second football teams, Blueboys Don Genger, Jim Spink, Bob Grove, George Florence, Paul Lasley, John DeLaPaz and Ray Watts, ranked well up on the honorable mention list. And, as Al Miller mentioned, "I had to talk like the devil to get them that."

A psychology student of the first water, the big Illinois coach can play the emotions of a football player much as Stradivarius probably tuned his violins. Ray has a tougher job than did "Strad," however. It must be easier to tune the few strings on a violin than to harmonize eleven husky football players. And, a few of Eliot's boys this past season seemed to be ar-

YMCA basketball league president Lee Ogle announces that eight teams have joined the independent loop and play will begin at the South Jacksonville gym Dec. 6. Teams in the fold are Farmer's Auto Sales, Sunbeam Bread, Winchester Lot Shots, White Hall Giants, Winchester V.F.W., Ill. National Guard, Franklin, and Chapin Blackhawks.

Coaches Whose Squads Played Both Rose Bowl Teams Disagree

Madison, Wis., Dec. 1.—(P)—jans battled the Big 10 Buckeyes to a 13-13 draw and lost to Wynn Waldorf's Golden Bears, 16-10, on a last minute, 100-yard touchdown run.

"I'm basing my opinion strictly on what we saw when the two clubs played us here," said Williamson. "The Bears have a better offensive club, more talented backs, more versatility. They have Bob Celer at quarterback, and the Buckeyes have no one to match him. For that reason I must give the Bears an edge."

Cravath felt just the opposite in an interview at Tulsa, Okla., where he was visiting.

"Ohio State almost chased us out of the park," he commented. "Much as I'd like to see Lynn's team win, I think Ohio State will grab it. They've got great running backs. We played California on even terms, and might have won."

Williamson said that from what Ohio State showed, defense and offense had a stout defense and that "maybe the Rose Bowl game will be closer than we figure."

"I feel the Big 10 has a fine representative in Ohio State," Williamson added. "I hope they surprise me and come away with another victory for our conference."

"But they have a rugged job ahead of them."

3 National Guard Enlistees Qualify For Academy Exam

Springfield, Ill., Dec. 1.—(P)—Three Illinois National Guard enlistees have been nominated as candidates for admission to the U. S. Military Academy at West Point, the adjutant general, Leo M. Boyle, announced today.

The nominees, chosen from 16 guard members who took preliminary admission tests, are Sgt. James R. Bean, Springfield; Corp. Wayne A. Anderson, DeKalb, and Pfc. Robert J. Ferry, Chicago.

The three qualify for final examinations next March in competition with candidates from other states.

The Detroit Red Wings defeated the New York Rangers 15-0 in 1944 at Detroit for a record National Hockey League score.

Harvard Cuts Out 'Big Time' Grid; To Stay Among Ivy

Cambridge, Mass., Dec. 1.—(P)—The richest college in the world waved goodbye today to "big time" football and at the same time prepared to underwrite an athletic program "good for everybody."

The action follows Harvard's poorest football season on record and answers the critical torrent of "what's the matter with Harvard football?" and "What's Harvard going to do about it?"—that has poured over athletic director Bill Bingham's head since the Yale defeat.

Bingham, speaking for the University whose football teams in a little over a quarter of a century have plunged from tops in the nation to the bottom of the Ivy league, said in an interview:

"We have reached two milestones in our football history. "Intersectional games are out. We are not going to compete with the west or the south. We are going to stick to the Ivy league." Bingham made it clear teams already scheduled would be met.

He added that even in the Ivy league Harvard was cutting out Pennsylvania, "we can't compete against their state scholarships."

"The Big Three" (Harvard-Yale-Princeton) no longer exists, Bingham said, and the Ivy league (Harvard-Yale-Princeton-Columbia-Dartmouth-Cornell-Brown-Pennsylvania) is a better set up. "We've got a good program and we're going to stick to our own class. 'Big time' football is out."

Mt. Sterling Five At Quincy Tonight, Boast Three Wins

Mt. Sterling—With three consecutive wins over Mendon, Golden and Camp Point basketball teams, Coach Maurice Root's Mt. Sterling Hornets are primed to meet some stiffer competition this week.

For example, the Brown county quintet travels to Quincy tonight, a toughie in this sector every year. They go to Mercedosa for their next game before entertaining Routh of Jacksonville on Dec. 9.

Root, in his third year at Mt. Sterling, lost four lettermen off last year's Hornet five that compiled an 11-16 mark. He has seven regulars vying for first team berths and isn't completely sure of his starters yet.

Thomas McKinney, a graduate of Western State, is Root's assistant for the second year.

The remainder of the Hornet schedule:

Dec. 2—At Quincy

Dec. 6—At Mercedosa

Dec. 9—Routh

Dec. 13—At Chambersburg

Dec. 17—At Havana

Dec. 20—At Rushville

3 US Millionaires Ask British Doctor To Lengthen Lives

New York, Dec. 1.—(P)—Three aging American millionaires who do not want to die have called in a 78-year-old British physician who specializes in helping people attain the ripest old age possible.

The Longevity specialist, Dr. Maurice Ernest, arrived from England aboard the liner America today.

The chubby, balding doctor would not name the millionaires, but said: "They heard about my work in England and asked me to come over to do what I can for them. They are not prepared to accept their old age and approaching death."

Author of a book, "The Longer Life," he said he had concentrated for the past 45 or 50 years on "what could be done to escape what I consider the greatest humiliation known to mankind—unwanted death and decrepit old age."

Madison, Wis., Dec. 1.—(P)—Harry "Bud" Grant of Minnesota was the only man to make both all-opponent offensive and defensive teams named today by University of Wisconsin football lettermen.

The Rose Bowl winners, Ohio State and California, both winners over the Badgers this year, placed five players each on the two teams.

The choices: Defensive team—ends, Grant, Minnesota and Hague, Ohio State; tackles, Jennings, Ohio State, and Winslow, Iowa; guards, Tonnell, Ohio State, and Banks, Iowa; line backers, Tonnemaker, Minnesota, and Parsegian, Northwestern; halfbacks, Anson, Minnesota, and Montagne, California, and safety, Worthington, Northwestern.

Offensive team—ends, Grant and Dittmer, Iowa; tackles, Sawie, Northwestern, and Turner, California; guards, Goodfried, Illinois, and Franz, California; center, Lininger, Ohio State; quarterback, Celer, California; halfbacks, Krall, Ohio State, and Sarver, California, and fullback, Beiersdorf, Minnesota.

The broadcast added that the invention has been tested successfully 68 times, with animals playing the role of miners.

Rollie Seltz, ex-Hamline star, has rejoined an old teammate, playing-coach Howie Schultz, with the Anderson Packers of the National Basketball Association.

The U.S. Hockey League is operating with six teams—Tulsa, St. Paul, Minneapolis, Kansas City, Louisville and Omaha.

A Champion Must Want To Win, Eliot Tells Local Football Teams

"It's the will to win that makes an All-American and not a brutish physique," University of Illinois football coach Ray Eliot told Jacksonville Kiwanians and their guests, football squads of the three local high schools and Illinois College at the annual banquet in the main dining room of the Dunlap hotel Thursday noon.

O.E.S. Officers Of Jacksonville Installed Nov. 30

Installation ceremonies for newly elected officers of Wilber chapter, Order of Eastern Star, were conducted Wednesday at 4 p.m. at the Masonic Temple.

A musical program was presented before the ceremony with Donald Quill at the organ and a song by Miss Norma Jean Cully.

Serving as installing officers were Mrs. Dorothy Chumley, worthy matron; Mrs. Pauline Hapke, marshal; Mrs. Helen Summers, chaplain; and Mrs. Inez Canatney, organist.

New officers were: Worthy Matron, Mrs. Helen Cully; Worthy Patron, Mrs. Wilbur Cully; Associate Matron, Mrs. Martha Brunk; Associate Patron, Norman Ludwig; Secretary, Miss Clara Magill; Treasurer, Miss Minnie Wyatt; Conductress, Mrs. Martha McNell; Associate Conductress, Mrs. Martha June Svob.

Mrs. Marian May, retiring worthy matron, was given a jewel from the chapter by Mrs. Cully, and John May, retiring worthy patron, was given his jewel by Mr. Cully. After receiving the gifts Mrs. May, escorted by Dr. M. A. Summers, and Mr. May, escorted by Mrs. Helen Summers, signed the Bible at the altar.

Mrs. Covey, accompanied by her daughter, Carmen, sang "The Lord's Prayer."

Past Patrons Edwy Chumley, Arthur G. Cody and Dr. M. A. Summers served as escorts for the installing officers.

The committee in charge of preparing and decorating the Temple was Mrs. Rosalee Undergraff, Miss Leah Caldwell, Mrs. Emma Cruse, Mrs. Jean Blackman, Mrs. Dorothy Trotter, Mrs. Bess Eshroft and Mrs. Evelyn Baldwin. Ushers were Miss Patty Schramm and Miss Beth Armin.

Mrs. Thelma Covey was the soloist and Mrs. Mary Wise color bearer. Miss Janet Cully presented her mother with the bouquet of roses, given by the chapter, and also presented her father with his boutonniere.

Donovan, Logan Engagement Told: Both Of Virginia

Virginia—The engagement of Dorline Donovan of Virginia to Robert R. Logan, also of this city, has been announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred E. Donovan. Mr. Logan is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Logan. No date was set for the wedding.

Both are graduates of the local high school, Miss Donovan in 1948 and her fiancé in 1941. She is employed in the Virginia Gazette office. He served for three years in the armed forces and is now a senior at Purdue University at Lafayette, Ind., majoring in electrical engineering.

GENTRY LOWE SHOWS MOVIE TO ROTARIANS

Roodhouse — William H. Wolfe, program chairman at Rotary Wednesday night, presented Supt. Gentry W. Lowe, who showed the movie "Curiosity Shop" concerning research in aluminum.

Visiting Rotarians were D. L. Hardin, J. Alan Biles, Carroll Hughes and Tom Cornish of Jacksonville. A. E. Litz of Havana and Bill Shade of Roodhouse.

The monthly stag party was held at the home of Lloyd Coffman.

Mrs. Mary Jones of Rush Hill is visiting in the home of her daughter, Mrs. George Myers.

A MISSOURI HEIFER WHO DIDN'T YEARN FOR THE BIG CITY

A 750 pound heifer who didn't want to go to Chicago was found Thursday in a pasture east of Jacksonville. She went back home.

James McCall, Mexico, Mo., livestock trucker, told police that the animal had "gone down" late Sunday night as he was enroute with a load to Chicago. She refused to get up.

Somebody told him he could catch the heifer at the Swift yards in the northeast part of the city. He left her there.

She was gone when he returned the next day. He had to go on, but returned yesterday to look for her.

Evidently, she had wandered south and eastward and huddled a fence to get with the Hudson Dairy herd. She was found there.

Pre-Xmas Service Will Be Sunday At Westminster

A pre-Christmas musical service to which the general public is invited will be held Sunday, Dec. 4, at 10:45 a.m. at Westminster church, corner Westminster and College.

Forty voices from the Madrigal Choir of MacMurray College will sing "Happy Bethlehem," a Basque carol; "In Dulci Jubilo," an ancient German; "Adoration of the Shepherds," a Spanish carol; and "Ave Maria," by Mozart.

Miss Carmen Marie Covey, at the organ, will play "Pastorale" and "Postlude" by Barrett, and Richard Henry Mills of Illinois College will sing "The Last Chord," by Sullivan.

Dr. Ewert's message will be on "The Church's Contribution to the World." Members of the church will make their pledges for 1950 at this service.

Dr. Vanderhorst Gives Xmas Talk At Woodson P.T.A.

Woodson — Dr. Arrie Vanderhorst gave his annual Christmas message at the meeting of the P. T. A. Thursday evening in the school auditorium, after which the group presented him with a gift for his services in the past years.

Miss Peggy Flynn sang a solo, and the upper grades chorus gave several numbers.

Oliver McIlraith, president, called the meeting to order. Dr. Vanderhorst delivered the invocation. The pledge to the flag was said in unison, and Christmas carols were sung to the accompaniment of Miss Elizabeth Staughter.

Mrs. Ruth Hoagland read the treasurer's report in the absence of Mrs. Alma Murray. During the short business session, it was announced that the Christmas program would be held Wednesday night, Dec. 21. Dr. Vanderhorst closed the meeting with benediction.

Members of the program committee were Mr. and Mrs. Frank Flynn, Mr. and Mrs. William Longenecker, Mrs. Harriet Smith; of the refreshment committee, Mr. and Mrs. Oliver McIlraith, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Chaudoin and Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Spencer.

Stock Marketing To Be Managed By Eugene V. Stadel

Eugene V. Stadel, former farm adviser in Jo Daviess county with headquarters in Elizabeth, has been appointed manager of the Illinois Livestock Producers association. He opened his headquarters in Chicago Thursday.

The livestock association is a recently organized marketing affiliate of the Illinois Agricultural association.

Stadel, originally from Henry, Ill., was educated at the University of Illinois and was a farm adviser at Rockford, Winnebago county, before going to Elizabeth.

His wife is the former Melba Abernathy of Concord.

Solicitors Using Salvation Army's Name Falsely

Unauthorized solicitors are already out trying to raise money on the assumption that what they raise is for the Salvation Army Christmas fund.

A man with a gruff voice was reported having been in the north end of Jacksonville Wednesday, but the call came too late to track down the impostor.

Major Servais requests that anyone seen soliciting in the name of the Salvation Army be immediately reported to the local police, because no one is authorized to do so by the Army.

Community Delegates Reelect PMA Board

All county officers of the Morgan county Production and Marketing administration county committee were reelected Tuesday when the community chairmen met in Jacksonville.

Wallace T. Hembrough, Rural Route 5, Jacksonville, will continue to serve as chairman.

Vice-chairman of the committee is Charles R. Gibson of Franklin. Wilbur C. Williams of Chapin, is the third member. The first and second alternates are J. C. Timmons of Waverly and Harry Kumble of Alexander.

Chairman Hembrough, speaking in behalf of the entire committee, stated "it will be our purpose to serve the farmers of the community to the best of our ability."

"We are again faced with a lot of adjustment problems in the field of agriculture," he said. "As a result, greater responsibilities are being placed on the county PMA organizations. We shall endeavor to carry out all assignments as efficiently as we know how, and to serve all farmers fairly and justly. To assist us in these tasks we solicit the cooperation of all individual farmers and all groups associated with or interested in agriculture."

All people with PMA problems should feel free to call at the county office at any time for information or assistance, the chairman stipulated.

The list of committeemen and delegates of the 18 townships of Morgan county follows (chairman, vice chairman, member, first and second alternate, delegate to the county convention and alternate delegate):

Township 13-2—Jesse C. Timmons, Edwin L. Rhea, Jr., Otis Timmons, A. Hampton Shekelton, Chester O. Timmons, Jesse C. Timmons, Edwin L. Rhea, Jr., all of Waverly.

BURL IVES TO SING HERE TONIGHT: 100 TICKETS AVAILABLE

Officials of the MacMurray Artists series said last night that a capacity audience is anticipated when Burl Ives, hailed as "America's mightiest ballad singer" appears at 8:15 p.m. tonight at the Illinois School for the Deaf auditorium.

Only 100 tickets are still available they said. These will be sold to the earlier arrivals at tonight's concert.

Ives, a wayfaring singer for years has done much to make this nation American folk song conscious. He has met with universal acclaim in his concert, radio and movie appearances.

C. D. Of A. Hold Christmas Party Thursday Evening

Mrs. Alta Eisch and the Routh Girls' Glee club sang carols at the annual Christmas party and potluck supper given by the Catholic Daughters of America at the Knights of Columbus hall Thursday evening.

Miss Harriet Loerger read "Christmas the Year Around" with musical accompaniment, and Father John Morris, chaplain, gave a short address on the real meaning of the holiday.

A beautifully decorated Christmas tree on one side of the hall was surrounded with gifts, while candles and evergreens were used as table decorations by the committee composed of Mrs. Louise Cain, Mrs. Frances Lentz, Miss Catherine Cain and a number of others. Chairman was Mrs. Stella Hanley assisted by Miss Rosa Walsh.

Mrs. Geraldine Taylor presided over the business meeting, at which time reports were given by various committees.

CROP To Canvass Morgan County Beginning Dec. 5

At a meeting of workers in the Christian Rural Overseas Program, held in the Farm Bureau hall on Wednesday evening, plans were made for canvassing Morgan county during the week of Dec. 5-11.

The following week, Dec. 12-18, has been designated as clean-up week for the CROP campaign in the county.

At the Wednesday night meeting county chairman E. P. Hohmann named the following local chairmen, selected by road districts: District No. 2, Rollin Martin, Route 3, Jacksonville; No. 3, Rev. Robert Plisch, Concord; No. 4, in charge of Rev. Fred Wilson, Chapin, until chairman is selected.

No. 6, George Hardy, Route 2, Jacksonville; No. 8, Phillip Hohmann, Alexander; No. 9, Joe Whalen, Route 1, Franklin; No. 12, Harold Campbell, Route 2, Franklin, and No. 13, Lewis Walker, Waverly.

Chairmen have not yet been selected for districts No. 1, 5, 7, 10 and 11. These men are to secure six or more canvassers for each district, to contact farm people about CROP.

Following the business portion of the meeting, workers sang the film "Operation Mercy," describing the workings of the group in collecting commodities in the United States and distributing them to the needy in Europe and Asia.

This 16-mm. picture is available to any organization or group wishing to use it in a program. Contact Mrs. Malcolm Stewart, phone 1197Y in Jacksonville, for information about the free use of the film.

Ashland—A program on frozen foods will be given at the next meeting of the Ashland Women's club to be held Tuesday, Dec. 6, in the library club room at 2:30 p.m. Mrs. LeRoy Kline, chairman of the American Home committee will be the leader for the afternoon's program.

The members of the Junior Woman's club are to be guests.

Mrs. George Cardy of Springfield will present the program on "Entertaining With Frozen Foods."

The musical part of the program will be piano selections by Mrs. Lois Hostess.

Hostesses for the social hour will be Mrs. W. C. Stribling, Mrs. Bruce Blish, Mrs. Mary Anderson, Mrs. Floyd Nordsieck, Mrs. Roy Stice, Mrs. Robert Blackman, Mrs. E. J. Hewitt, Mrs. Maurice Plattner and Miss Julia Hewitt.

Cunningham Rites Held At Virginia

Funeral services for Oliver C. Cunningham were held in the Massie Funeral Home on Thursday at 2 p.m. Two vocal selections, "The Old Rugged Cross" and "In the Garden" were rendered by Henry George McDonald accompanied by Mrs. Otto Dour.

Caring for the floral tributes were Mrs. Leonard Crews, Mrs. Andrew Fox and Misses Carrie Mae Sidebottom and Iva Lancaster.

Palbearers were Milton, Elmer and Virgil Bell, James Sidebottom, William Stephens and James Maslin.

Rev. George H. Wilson of the Virginia Christian church officiated, and interment was made in Walnut Ridge cemetery.

I. A. A. Head Brands Brannan Subsidy Plan Avenue To Socialism

"The Brannan plan is not a farm program. It is a consumer subsidy plan under which the taxpayers would pay a large part of all grocery bills while farmers would receive the blame for the high cost."

This statement was contained in an address made in Virginia by Charles B. Shuman, president of the Illinois Agricultural association, when he spoke at the annual meeting of the Cass County Farm Bureau.

Six new members were chosen to serve on the board of directors. Reports of allied cooperatives showed "healthy growth and substantial returns." Dinner was served by the Virginia churches and the Shiloh Presbyterian church at noon to about 800 members of Farm Bureau families.

The I.A.A. head called for "one strong, single, united voice for agriculture." He particularly assailed the food subsidy plan offered by Secretary Brannan.

"The whole philosophy of the Brannan plan is foreign to our traditional concepts of the duty of government. It accepts the theory that the state owes the citizens a guaranteed income that no one should benefit by success," Shuman asserted.

"Farmers who might at first be attracted by the promise of high income should remember that when government long maintains an uneconomically high price in agriculture, it must and will be required to distribute the right to produce. The farmer's level of agricultural supports, the greater the degree of governmental controls."

Asks Abundant Production "I am sure that most farmers believe that our national welfare will be better served by abundant production by all groups rather than by a program of scarcity."

"We would prefer to receive high income through adequate, efficient production at a low cost than through high prices for reduced output. However, the rest of the economy must be willing to play the game under the same set of rules. Thus far, labor and industry have given very little indication that they are willing to produce abundantly."

President Shuman reiterated his position on the proposed gas tax hike, defeated by the last general assembly.

"I'm nearly positive that every one, before the winter is over, will approve a five cent gas tax, which the I.A.A. supported with the understanding that 12% per cent of the revenue raised would be allocated to rural roads."

During the morning session the men met at the Joy theatre; the women saw a meat cutting demonstration given at the high school by the Virginia Packing company.

New President Chosen Edward L. C. Carls, prominent livestock farmer residing southeast of Arenzville, was elected president to succeed Oral H. Hobrock, who will move to a Morgan county farm.

Emmerson Thornley of Ashland was chosen vice president and Fred Savage of Virginia was reelected secretary-treasurer.

New Board members included Thurnley, A. B. Carls of Ashland; William Sweetman of Arenzville; Alford Cosner of Philadelphia; Clarence Jokisch of Virginia and Lon Sweetman of Bluff Springs.

Directors reelected were Marion Elliot, Hagener; Edward Armstrong, Panther Creek, E. G. DeFratres, Sangamon Valley; Harry Watkins, Chandlerville; Silas DeGrook, Newmansville, and Kenneth Rawlings, Beardstown.

Service company directors reelected were President Herbert Piller of Beardstown and Arthur Taylor of Chandlerville.

Membership Increased Farm Adviser E. E. Lamont reported on the educational extension work done during the year. Slightly over 1,000 Cass county farmers now belong to the Farm Bureau.

Mrs. Floyd Leonard, president of the Home Bureau, extended greetings from that group. A. T. Dunn of Beardstown gave a report on the activities of the soil conservation district.

K. T. Smith of Greenfield, I.A.A. director from this district, was introduced.

Russell W. Armstrong, fieldman for the Illinois Grain corporation, presented a group of magical tricks; the Virginia high school band played and Mrs. Franklin Watkins sang two solos.

Club Program At Nortonville Hall

Seventeen members of the Nortonville club were present at a meeting held at the club hall with Ora Kelly as hostess. After opening exercises an interesting paper on "The First Thanksgiving" was read by Mary Ellen Bolton, and psalms were read by Lucille Oxley. After a hymn the club members answered roll call with Biblical verses containing the word thanks.

Mrs. George Shyer and Mrs. Thomas Sullivan of Springfield gave a salad demonstration during the social hour.

Charles Martin Talks To Kiwanis In Scott Tuesday

Winchester — Charles F. Martin, credit manager for International Harvester in Springfield, was speaker at the meeting of the Kiwanis club held Tuesday evening in the Hall.

B. F. Walker, program chairman, introduced the speaker, who presented some ideas on opportunities within our own communities, community spirit, and the importance of patronizing local merchants. He also stressed the value of participating in community activities.

The brief business meeting was presided over by president Everett Patterson. Announcement was made of the charter night to be held at Kilbourn, Illinois.

Baptist Group Meets The Mission Aid group of the First Baptist church held a Christmas meeting at the home of Mrs. May Smith Thursday afternoon, Dec. 1.

Forty six members and guests were present. The business sessions were presided over by Mrs. Oren Robertson and Mrs. Olin Clark, respective presidents of the Mission Society and the Ladies Aid.

The Christmas program was in charge of Mrs. W. F. Harper and Mrs. Norbert Hutchens. Preceding the gift exchange, the group sang carols and heard a recording of Charles Dickens' "A Christmas Carol." Mrs. Norbert Hutchens read a Christmas story entitled, "The Littlest Angel."

The meeting was concluded with the serving of refreshments by the committee consisting of Mrs. Albert Buckley, Mrs. Muri Hauback, Mrs. Edgar Brickey, Mrs. Hazel Morris and Mrs. Elsie Thomas.

Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Walker are in Peoria attending an International Harvester meeting.

Dr. and Mrs. W. E. Harper returned Wednesday night from a dental meeting at the Jefferson hotel in St. Louis.

Mrs. Ellen Patterson entertained her club at 2 p.m. Thursday.

Mrs. Vina Allen and Oswald Coullas of Chapin were called here Wednesday by the death of Ed Markille.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Roberts of Canton, Mo., were visitors in Winchester Thursday night. Mrs. McRoberts formerly taught in the Winchester high school.

Mrs. L. A. Watt entertained her bridge club at a Christmas party Thursday night.

Women Will Hold Church Service At White Hall

White Hall—Sunday, Dec. 4, is National Woman's Day, and in observance the Women's Council members of the First Christian church will be in charge of the 10:45 morning service.

Mrs. Mark Henderson is missionary chairman of the Council, and together with Mrs. Emma Chapmar has prepared the program which will include, besides the regular communion, a vocal duet by Misses Virginia Johnston and Aline Harney; "Explanation of Woman's Day," Mrs. Norman Bechtel; "Woman's Part in the Crusade," Mrs. Charles Coates; "Brothers in the Flesh" and Salvation for All, Miss Bette Spangenberg.

"Congo Golden Jubilee" will be the subject of Mrs. John Neece; "A Message from the Orient," Mrs. Cliff Woods; "Because Someone Cared," Mrs. Harold Milnes, and a message on the life of Dr. Albert Schweitzer, famed missionary-doctor of Africa, by Miss Dorothy M. Young.

The Union Youth service will be held Sunday night, Dec. 4, at the First Christian church. At 7:30 the Union evening service will be held with Rev. Charles Vandettum, pastor of the Methodist church, occupying the pulpit.

The Gregory Community club met Monday night, Nov. 28, at the schoolhouse, with the committee for the evening in charge of Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Cox and Mr. and Mrs. Ray Knox. Music was furnished by Clyde McMahon, and the better part of the evening was spent in square dancing.

The White Hall Fire Dept. was called on Wednesday afternoon to the home of Elmer Stone on the Hillview road, where a shed was destroyed by fire.

COMMUNITY CLUB TO HOLD TAX ROUNDUP The Prentice-Yatesville Community club will hold a tax roundup Sunday, Dec. 4. Hunters are asked to meet at Creed's store in Prentice at 9 a.m. Only shotguns will be permitted.

Dr. Perry A. Roberts and Dr. J. J. Schenz attended a meeting of the Mid-State Optometric Society Monday night at the St. Nicholas hotel. The speaker was Dr. Nelson H. Chestnut, Springfield physician.

Santa To Be Guest At JayCee Songfest

NAVY APPOINTEE?—John F. Floberg, above, Chicago attorney and Navy war veteran, is reportedly under consideration for appointment as assistant secretary of the Navy for Air.

Santa Claus will be a special guest at the third annual Christmas Songfest, to be held Tuesday evening, Dec. 13, at 7:45 o'clock in the auditorium of Jacksonville High school.

In accepting the invitation extended by the local Junior Chamber of Commerce, which is sponsoring the event, Santa said that he would be delighted to attend, because he felt the spirit of Christmas followed in abundance where people gathered to sing the traditional carols. He also promised to have plenty of treats to distribute among the children.

This year's program has been arranged to appeal especially to children. Several children's and young people's groups will be featured.

Henry Busche Director
Henry Busche, choral director at Illinois college, will again serve as director and master of ceremonies, as he has done for the Songfest in the two preceding years. Don Quixote will be featured at the organ.

Among the group which will present special numbers are the Spiritual Harmonizers; James Waltz and his troupe of pantomime performers; the Girls' chorus of the Illinois School for the Blind, under the direction of Mrs. John Zell; the Jacksonville High School Chorus, under the direction of Miss Lena Mae Hopper; the Grade School Mass Chorus, with students from three elementary schools, under the direction of Miss Mildred Eubank; and the combined choirs of Bethel and Mt. Emory churches, under the direction of Mrs. Bevie Fisher.

Everyone in the community, both young and old, will have an opportunity to participate in the Songfest through group singing, which will be led by Mr. Busche.

There will be no admission charge for the songfest and the public is cordially invited to attend.

The Jay Cee committee in charge is under the co-chairmanship of Arthur Hallerberg and Robert Herr.

C. Of C. Warns Of Unscrupulous Holiday Schemes

The Jacksonville Chamber of Commerce issued a warning Thursday to businessmen and individuals to be especially careful in making donations, or in making purchases from strangers during this season of the year.

The Christmas season is a season of good will and generosity. It is not uncommon for unscrupulous firms and individuals to prey on the season of the year.

Some of the more common appeals include unusual or little known nations of food, clothing or cash to "ideal gift" for some one. Most of that organization.

the time these items are found to be of inferior quality and can always be purchased in local stores at the same or lower price. At the same time, it was pointed out that the local dealers is established and ready to make adjustments in the case of faulty merchandise, whereas the itinerant peddler could not be found in case the merchandise did not turn out to be all it was claimed.

Another common appeal during this season of the year is for charity. There are some who will solicit cash, clothing and food for needy families, but actually the needy by family usually turns out to be the solicitor himself. The Salvation Army in Jacksonville handles most 3:30 p.m. and Monday, Dec. 5, at the really needed cases at Christmas time. It is suggested that do include unusual or little known nations of food, clothing or cash to "ideal gift" for some one. Most of that organization.

Modern pins made of wires were first produced in France and Germany.

MRS. ROY LEWIS TO BE SOLOIST FOR HANDEL "MESSIAH"

Jacksonville friends of Mrs. Roy Lewis will be interested to learn that she will be soprano soloist in the two performances of Handel's "Messiah," to be given at the First Christian church in Springfield by the Springfield Oratorio society. Mrs. Lewis, the former Winona Rawlings, was active in music circles here during her student years.

The Oratorio society is sponsored by the Springfield Council of Churches. Renditions of the "Messiah" will be given Sunday, Dec. 4, at 8 p.m. and Monday, Dec. 5, at 8 p.m. at the First Christian church.

Girls Will Be Rushed In Their Own Way

Washington—(AP)—Sessions of the National Interfraternity Conference lasted right up to the last minute before the grand ball, leaving no time for delegates to call for blind dates the arrangements committee had arranged.

So the arrangements committee made another arrangement. The girls would be called for in groups by other fraternity men. "Oh no," said the girls. "We don't want to be herded."

So the arrangements committee arranged another arrangement. The girls were asked to get themselves to fraternity houses, where they would dress and be met by their dates. That went over better. "But taking the date home is an individual problem," said the committee.

Japanese Silk Exports Gain

Tokyo—(AP)—The Japanese government Foreign Trade Corporation for textiles sees signs that the badly-slumped silk business may be reviving. Export contracts for more than 8,500 bales of raw silk were signed in October, a gain of more than 1,000 bales.

Silk men hope exports will reach 10,000 bales a month by the end of the year—but that will still be only one-fifth the pre-war level.

Noble Prize In Physics No Help With Carpentry

PHYSICIST AND FAMILY: Dr. Hideki Yukawa, who won the Nobel Prize in physics, calls himself a "very impractical man." Here is his practical family—his wife and two sons, Taka-aki (left, 15, and Harumi, 16.

By NEA Service
New York —(NEA)— Dr. Hideki Yukawa took a despairing look at the unpainted knocked-down bookshelf that had been delivered to his apartment.

The assorted pieces of wood, nails and screws spread out on the living room floor were too much for the 42-year-old Japanese-born physicist. At 28, Dr. Yukawa had been able to figure out a revolutionary theory on the existence of the meson in the atom. But now he had to summon help from his sons, Taka-aki 15, and Harumi, 16.

"Boys," he said "here is a job for you. Everything in this bookcase is separate. It must all be put together and you know that your father is a very impractical man."

The impractical Dr. Yukawa is now on the faculty of Columbia university here. He was the first Oriental to win a Nobel Prize, taking this year's award in physics for his meson theory. He and his wife have been in the United States a year, the boys four months.

Although still retaining their fondness for most of their native Japanese food, they have begun to learn to like some American dishes. But American dancing is still alien to them, especially to Mrs. Yukawa, who is an accomplished dancer infather."

Community Club To Hold Frolic At Jefferson School

A fun frolic will be held by the Jefferson Community club Friday, Dec. 2 at 7:30 p.m. at Jefferson school.

The highlight of the evening will be a demonstration by a group of professional recreational leaders from Chicago.

The group will be headed by Dr. H. D. Edgen, professor of recreation at George Williams college, Chicago. He will be assisted by Regina Burnbaum of Chicago, Betty Draund of Hammond, Ind., Marie Krakora of Berwin, Clarence Boyles of Louisville, Ky., and Harold Schofield of Milwaukee Wis.

Other features of the evening will be games, singing, informal dramatics and plays. Refreshments will be served.

All residents of the first ward are urged to be present.

Many Nations Aid Greece

Athens—Greek relief isn't strictly an American show. Seven other countries—Canada, Switzerland, Britain, Denmark, Sweden, Norway and Argentina—have been doing a quiet but vital job of helping this strife-torn country get back on its feet.

Maternity clinics from Britain, Norway mobile units from Canada, shoes and blankets from Switzerland, sanatoriums from Sweden, and millions of dollars worth of food are playing a big role in helping solve one of Europe's toughest rehabilitation problems.

Corps of trained health specialists from Denmark, Sweden and Norway, in a joint Scandinavian aid scheme, are carrying out a gigantic program of examination and immunization. This program will include every Greek child, 600,000 of which already have been examined for childhood sicknesses and tuberculosis.

Starch is found in all green plants, serving as a reserve food supply.

Kid Knit Fashions

Imported knitwear for toddlers that's easy on mom's pocketbook is the winter fashion news for the carriage trade. The cardigan (above) checkerboard patterned, buttons down the front. Ultra feminine in its ruffle-trimmed crew neck and hand-embroidered detail is the little girl's sweater (upper right) lace-knit from shoulder to center front. Junior gets a patterned tailored pullover, which buttons on the shoulder and combines with French-styled boxer shorts (right).

BY EPSIE KINARD
NEA Fashion Editor

New York—(NEA)—Fine imported knitwear which only babies "born with silver spoons" used to be able to wear is available now to any toddler whose Mom has a few dollars to spend.

Backing the efforts of the American Military Government to develop industry in occupied Germany, U.S. merchants have equipped knit-mills there with modern Swiss machines. These can duplicate the intricate hand-made effects and, to wear it next to his skin.

good fit tailored into yarn which give machine-knits their look of expensive elegance; their cable, lace, waffle or checkerboard patterns; their details of ruffle trim or delicate floral embroidery.

The sheer lightweight Australian wool yarn used gives warmth without weight. Babies allergic to wool can be wrapped up in the same board patterns or in two-piece suits which are stamped by an unmissable continental chic. Suits coming into visello. An insulating agent, this all-viscous yarn bines pullover sweaters with three button shoulder closings and snappy French-cut boxer shorts.

Typical sweater style for the girl toddler is a feminine cardigan in blue or white with crew neckline that sports a ruffled collar. Lace knit panels in contrasting color, centered with embroidered detail, run from shoulder to center front. Little boys up to three years can be toggled out in single cardigans or pullovers with distinctive checkerboard patterns or in two-piece suits which are stamped by an unmissable continental chic. Suits coming into visello. An insulating agent, this all-viscous yarn bines pullover sweaters with three button shoulder closings and snappy French-cut boxer shorts.

Comfortable—in the spacious manner of king-size interiors. Easy—in the lightness of controls, which can include even the magic of Dynaflo Drive* if you wish. Pleasurable—in the wide, wide outlook that's yours, and the inner satisfaction of having a Buick for your very own.

And we might add another thing, just by way of being practical.

It's frugal too. Frugal in a first cost that's actually less than for some sixes. Frugal in the surprising way such a sizable car gives the go-by to gas pumps.

And if you have Dynaflo, frugal even in many up-keep costs you can forget about—such as clutch troubles, transmission maintenance, even many engine servicing costs.

Camp Ellis Sought By State For Site Of Recreation Area

Springfield, Ill., Dec. 1—(AP)—Director Leonard Schwartz said today that the Illinois Conservation Department will seek control of Camp Ellis for conversion into a sportsmen's paradise.

The department wants to turn the 17,000-acre World War II military reservation near Lewistown into a public hunting, fishing, recreational and experimental farming area, Schwartz said.

He said negotiations with the U. S. army engineers office in Chicago will be opened immediately. All except 600 acres used by the Illinois National Guard for a rifle range will be sought.

Natural Wildlife Area
"Possibilities of lake and recreational development at Camp Ellis are boundless," Schwartz said. "It is a natural wildlife area and already has 900 acres of small ponds for fishing."

"With the spread of industries and population in Illinois, there is an alarming decline in wildlife. Camp Ellis would answer the plea of hunters, particularly for an area on which to shoot, but in addition we plan to develop the area for fishing and for youth and adult recreation of all sorts."

He suggested leasing farm land on the reservation for agricultural experiments and tree and soil conservation.

"The army is preparing to dispose of the property, so it's now or never," Schwartz said.

Neighbors Favor Idea
After the war's end, Camp Ellis was designated as a training ground for the national guard. Earlier this year the guard decided to abandon the site. It then was declared surplus property and will be turned over on Dec. 10 to the army engineers for disposal.

Schwartz said many citizens of small communities near Camp Ellis favor his plan, and that U. S. Senator Scott W. Lucas had pledged assistance in acquiring the land.

Miss Mardell Reitzel has returned to Springfield following a several day's visit with her father, P. C. Reitzel and family.

Mrs. Fred Wahlfield was a Jacksonville business caller Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Carter of Moroca, Ind., were week-end guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Burdette Hoon and family.

IDEAL FARM GIRL—Virginia Le Arta Jensen, 18, of Blair, Neb., was named "Ideal Farmer's Daughter" at the National Farm show in Chicago. A former 4-H club member, Virginia is the daughter of Arthur Jensen, who farms 80 acres.

PACKARD Ultramatic Drive
The last word in automatic, no-shift control!

'Way ahead in driving ease... because it's ahead in basic principles!
Born of a 16-year Packard development program. Backed by seven million dollars' worth of new manufacturing facilities.
That's Packard Ultramatic Drive!
Come in—see for yourself why independent technical observers call it "the last word in automatic no-shift control!"

- New simplicity: Naturally, there's no clutch pedal. And that's only the first hint of the convenience of Packard Ultramatic Drive! There's nothing new to learn. Just step on the gas, and steer!
- New smoothness, new quietness. No jerking or "clunking," because there's no gear-shifting anywhere. No "racing engine" sensation, because there's no slippage at cruising speeds.
- New economy. Ultramatic Drive saves gas—because there's no slippage at cruising speeds. And thanks to its advanced design, Packard Ultramatic Drive requires no complicated maintenance.
- New safety: No chance of involuntary unexpected "down-shifts," which might cause a prolonged skid on slippery pavement. Packard Ultramatic Drive gives you smooth, gradual engine braking power for safe deceleration.
- More responsive: No lag, at traffic speeds or highway speeds, waiting for gears to shift. For instant bursts of safety-sprint acceleration—just "tramp down."
- More positive, more flexible: Your choice of high-range, or low-range operation. Easy shift from forward to reverse. Yes, you can rock the car in snow!

Come in now for your introductory drive!

PATTERSON

Patterson—Mrs. Ethel Walls returned the latter part of the week from Kenosha, Wis., where she was called by the serious condition of her nephew, Robert Tuttlewski. He was injured in an automobile accident a few weeks ago and has never regained consciousness.

She was accompanied as far as Chicago by her son, Delbert, who has employment at Downey, Ill., at a veteran's hospital.

Mrs. Carrie Hubbard and Miss Lena Schutz of White Hall accompanied Mr. and Mrs. William McClenning and daughter, Gertie, to Kincaid and spent Thanksgiving with Mr. and Mrs. Russell Karnes and son.

Mrs. Bertha Walker of Manchester spent from Sunday till Thursday with Mrs. Emma Sorrell. Mr. and Mrs. Paul Rimbey and Howard Sorrells of Peoria spent the weekend in the same home.

Nancy and Willard Daniels are new pupils in the primary room. Mr. and Mrs. Harold Smith of near Glasgow visited Saturday evening with Mr. and Mrs. Guy Sorrells.

The food committee for the next community meeting, to be held Dec. 9, has announced that sandwiches, salad and pie will be the menu.

Coffee will be furnished. Mr. and Mrs. Fred Nielsen and the former's sister, Miss Beulah Nielsen, all of Chicago, and Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Karnes and son of Kincaid spent the weekend with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. William McClenning and daughter, Gertie.

Mr. and Mrs. Everett Ford of Bunker Hill and Mr. and Mrs. William Thomas of Hillview called in the William McClenning home Monday afternoon.

Regular meeting of the Royal Neighbors and annual election of officers will be held Thursday evening, Dec. 15.

WHAT'S IN A NAME? DEATH

Khartoum, Sudan — (P) — Two Sudanese who had the same last name—Khamis — were introduced. They cheerfully discussed the coincidence. Then one discovered that the other spelled his name differently in Arabic.

A quarrel over the correct spelling started.

Khamis killed Khamis.

industry representative of the United Mine Workers' welfare and retirement fund. He suc-

THE STORY: Just as police and Stephanie Smith prepare to meet
Audrey Yakov to exchange information about a valuable cameo
locket for papers that will clear
Hagar Blair of murder charges,
there is a phone call for Chief
Peters. From his conversation,
Stephanie fears that something has happened to Yakov.

XXVIII
CHARLIE REDDY slammed down the phone and looked up at Trotter standing in the doorway.

"Well," he spread both hands
in an expression of defeat, "there goes our missing link. Yakov's in the hospital with a cracked head.
May or may not live. They found him in the alley back of Bob's
Place—that's the bar, you know.
One of Bob's customers, full to the gills, went out back to get a little fresh air or something and found Yakov, lying on his face, blood on the back of his head, and a smashed half-gallon demijohn nearby. No fingerprints on it, of course."

"Nice!" Trotter commented quietly.
"Yeah, you bet. Nice!" Reddy's mouth was a taut, pale line. He struck his right fist hard into the palm of his left hand. "The Chief's right! We're a bunch of yokels in Dolorosa! A bunch of Keystone Cops playing games while the citizenry is getting knocked off right and left!"

Trotter gave his attention to fitting his pipe into its battered leather pouch:
"No use wasting time malig-ning ourselves," he declared. "Let's get downtown and learn the particulars. Somebody ought to be near Yakov constantly in case he becomes conscious and is able to talk."

"May I come, too?" Stephanie's face was worried and fearful. "I don't want to stay here alone!"
Reddy nodded concernedly. "No,
you can't stay here, that's a cinch.
Tell you what—why don't you pack up your toothbrush and pa-

amas and we'll get you a room at the Casa Rosa; you'll be safe there. It's right next door to where I live and I'll check with you from time to time."

CHIEF PETERS and Charlie Reddy sat opposite each other in two wicker chairs surrounded by the scientifically contrived cheerfulness of the hospital's second floor waiting room.

Reddy straightened his shoulders and took the ball. "Well, you say Pfeiffer told you he suspects
Tom O'Neill because of that wearing tool Tom borrowed from him to incise his pottery?"

"Yeah, Pfeiffer claims the thing was the right size and shape to've inflicted the wounds in both Falter and Mrs. O'Neill."

"But he didn't have another one like it to show you?"
The Chief shook his head, repeating once more a description of the instrument as Pfeiffer had given it to him:

"Long, thin, steel thing with a little handle. Pfeiffer says he used it for picking out threads in his weaving. Described it as an oversize bodkin with a sharp point.
Ever see a bodkin?"

Reddy looked puzzled. "If I had,
I wouldn't know it from a hogan."
The Chief pursed his lips and expounded: "It's a large-eyed blunt needle for drawing tape or ribbon through a loom or hem. I looked it up in Webster's. Pfeiffer told me this gismo of his was like that except for the large-eyed blunt part. This thing was sharp, and about four inches long on the business end."

"What would Tom want with it?"
"I told you. He wanted it for incising sgraffitto work on his clay pots."

"Sgraffitto. Of course. Naturally," Reddy waved an arm wildly.
"Clear as mud!"
"Oh, you've seen sgraffitto. It's that rough-textured pottery that looks like it'd been scratched with a pin or something on the outside.

When the clay is what they call 'green'—that is, before it's been baked or glazed—the potters sometimes scratch that roughness onto it for a special effect. They use all kinds of queer gadgets to get unusual surfaces. You know those wire flower-holders? Fella I know who has a pottery up in the canyon specializes in little lambs. He makes 'em woolly-looking by punching the green clay with one of those sharp-pronged flower holders. Tricks in all trades, you know."

Reddy scratched the stubble that was beginning to appear on his cheeks. "And Pfeiffer thinks this sgraffitto thing could've been the murder weapon? Did he say why he thought Tom might have done it?"

"He babbled a lot of stuff about Tom being jealous of Falter and Nell—he seemed scared to death,
wanted me to give him police protection. I pointed out to him that it couldn't have been Tom, since he has a foolproof alibi for the time of both murders. He was in Bob Knox's back room."

REDDY brought out his notebook: "Let's go over all the alibis once more. Suppose we start with Hagar's."

Peters thumbed through his notes. "Not much use checking that, she's the one who just plain hasn't got an alibi. That's why she's in jail, my boy."

"I'm pretty sure you can rule her out, though, Chief."

"Why should I? There's a lot that points right to her. Who was right smack-dab in Falter's house just after the murder—maybe right at the time of the murder?
Who's studio was Nell O'Neill's body found in? Who was it gave us a big mumbo-jumbo about being down in Dana Point at the barbecue pits when Mrs. O'Neill was killed? Who had the cameo in her possession and claims she didn't know how it got there?
Huh? Nobody but Hagar Blair, a tough old gimlet-eyed doll who looks like she'd commit a murder
soon's she'd fry an egg!"

Jewish Families Leave Damascus For Security

Damascus—(AP)—The small Jewish population remaining in ancient Damascus is shrinking steadily because Jewish families are leaving in Beirut, across the mountains in Syria in a search for greater security. One Arabic newspaper, "Al Ayyam," estimates that about one hundred Jewish families left the city in the last three months. "Al Ayyam" said they went to Israel, smuggling their movable property and money with them. Informed sources say it is possible that some of the Jews reached Israel, but they believe most of them sought refuge in Beirut, across the mountains in Lebanon, traditionally a Christian area in a Moslem world. Jewish sources decline to discuss the situation of the Jews in Damascus in the last three months. However, it was learned that more than 5,000 Jews have fled Damascus and Palestine since the Jewish struggle approached climax in 1947. The 5,000 figure is a conservative estimate. Reliable estimates place the present Jewish population at Damascus at 4,000; of Aleppo at 2,000. Syrian Jews have been concentrated in these two cities for centuries.

The Columbia River, forming the boundary between Washington and Oregon, is believed to carry more water than all other American Pacific Coast streams combined.

Why Red Cars Speed Traffic

New York—(AP)—Do you dislike having other motorists jockey past you while trying to drive at a safe and steady pace?

engineer. A test of motorists' reactions showed that drivers are more impatient when trailing a red car because red is the most stimulating color—hence the greater urge to pass. Cream and yellow colors are also stimulating, while black, blues and greens without yellow undertones are the colors less inciting to the driver in the following car, Mr. Howard Ketcham, color and design Ketcham reports.

Cow Thief Blames Ulcers

Washington—(AP)—Harry C. Barton, of Sandy Spring, noticed the cow he just bought seemed homesick. He noticed also that its horns drooped. And he read that a cow with drooping horns had been stolen. Checking up, sure enough he found that he had bought a stolen cow. He got his money back. The rustler was traced, confessed, and blamed it all on the fact that he had ulcers, seven children and a house that burned down.

"But if it wasn't for drinking, I wouldn't have taken a single cow," he said.

CHINESE REDS BEGIN EDUCATION REFORMS

San Francisco—(AP)—The Chinese Reds have begun to remodel their higher educational system, but obviously are going slow. In a broadcast heard here by the Associated Press, the Peking Radio said curricula for colleges and arts and sciences had been revised.

"This marks the beginning of the reformation of the old educational system in universities and colleges in China," declared the broadcast. Dialectical materialism, historical materialism and what the Reds call "new democracy" are required subjects. Russian is required as a foreign language course "whenever possible."
